

Patient presents with persistent painless lymphadenopathy with or without B symptoms. May have increased risk of infection. Malignant nodes often firm and rapidly increase in size (some slower), supraclavicular node often sign of malignancy. Can cause organ impairment if infiltrate organs.

